order involved. The suspect identified as Elias Espana by the reporting party was supposed to be driving a white Ford Thunderbird in the area. Upon arrival, the officers were advised that the suspect may be in the drive-through at the Jack-in-the-Box restaurant. The officers observed a white Ford Thunderbird, occupied by one male, exit the drive-through. The officers stopped the vehicle at the parking lot and identified the driver as Elias Espana. Mr. Espana was detained in the vehicle at the location while the officer spoke with the reporting party and her boyfriend in another area of the parking lot.

The victim advised Mr. Espana is her ex-boyfriend and the father of her son, who was in the vehicle. She advised she parked in the parking lot and entered Albertsons grocery store. When she came out, she found the defendant and her boyfriend physically fighting beside her van. She reported there is a no contact order against Mr. Espana, so she called the police. She reported when she yelled she was calling the police, Mr. Espana walked away, got in his car, and drove away.

The officer spoke to the victim's boyfriend, and he advised that he was waiting in the van with Mr. Espana's son, when he noticed someone walk to the passenger side of the van. He found Mr. Espana standing beside the van and opened the door to ask him what he was doing. Mr. Espana told the victim's boyfriend that he was wanting to say hello to his son. To avoid a confrontation in front of the child, the boyfriend allowed Mr. Espana to say hello to his son. The defendant's son then called the boyfriend "dad," while Mr. Espana was speaking to him, and Mr. Espana became upset. Mr. Espana began arguing with the boyfriend and took up a fight stance. The boyfriend took off his jacket because he believed that Mr. Espana was going to fight him. Mr. Espana began throwing punches at the boyfriend, and the boyfriend fought back. The boyfriend did have a large red mark on his left cheek, which he stated was caused by Mr. Espana hitting him. The boyfriend advised he was interested in pursuing assault charges.

The officer did a WACIC check and found that there is a valid and served protection order between Mr. Espana and the victim. The order also listed Mr. Espana's son as a protected person, and the defendant is listed as the respondent. The order listed as number 11-3-0092-4 did have boundary restrictions of 500 feet. The order was issued on August 9, 2013, which expires June 1, 2014.

Mr. Espana was arrested for violation of the protection order, and the officer Mirandized him at the scene. Mr. Espana was subsequently booked at Yakima City Jail and charged with violation of the protection order.

According to the Yakima Municipal Court docket, on December 18, 2013, Mr. Espana plead guilty to the charge and was sentenced to 364 days jail with 362 days suspended, and a $593 financial obligation.

Standard Condition #11: The defendant shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer.

Supporting Evidence: Mr. Espana failed to report law enforcement contact within 72 hours of being charged with a no contact/protection order violation on December 17, 2013.
